JOAN G. WEXLER
JOSEPH CREA DEAN AND
PROFESSOR OF LAW

June 2006

Dear Members of the Class of 2006:

On behalf of the faculty, administration, and staff, I want to congratulate you on your graduation from Brooklyn Law School. We know that the demands of law school have been immense, but that is precisely why you can take such pride in your achievement.

You are about to discover first-hand that because you are a lawyer, your power to influence the course of private lives and public affairs has never been greater. I am certain that you will exercise your influence with strength and grace, and with care and responsibility, in part because of the training that began here, at Brooklyn Law School.

Indeed, my sincerest wish is that a few years from now, when you reflect on your legal education, you will find that we did our best to instill in you a love of the law and a commitment to what is best about the profession.

Now you are members of the Brooklyn Law School alumni family — a family spanning several generations whose members can be found in law firms, government agencies, public interest law offices, and management suites across the country and around the world. There will be many “family gatherings” in the years to come, including class reunions, symposia, and social events. We look forward to seeing you at all of them.

With all best wishes,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Joan Wexler", written in a cursive style.

Joan G. Wexler

Association of Trial Lawyers of America!

ATLA is the largest trial bar in America with 56,000 members worldwide. ATLA's aim is to promote justice and fairness for injured persons, safeguards victims' rights-particularly the right to trial by jury-and strengthens the civil justice system through the education and disclosure of information critical to public health and safety. ATLA provides lawyers with the information and professional assistance needed to serve clients successfully and protect the democratic values inherent in the civil justice system. In our Brooklyn chapter, ATLA strives to educate students in many facets of trial advocacy. First, we will host panels of both criminal and civil attorneys with discussions ranging from celebrity cases to courtroom tactics to career choices. In addition, we will hold regular demonstrations of trial techniques in preparation for Moot Court tryouts, including opening and closing statements, direct- and cross-examination, and objections. Finally, we will hold our 2nd Annual Partnership in Advocacy Scholarship Competition. The winner will travel to Toronto, Canada to attend an ATLA convention and write a publishable paper with a Brooklyn Law professor for credit.

Brooklyn Law School's moot court program is among the nation's best in fulfilling this goal. Each year BLS enters approximately 20 teams in national competitions. These competitions span all areas of the law, from labor law to criminal procedure, from family law to international law. This past year BLS took home top honors in several competitions.

Congratulations to the 2005-2006

AROUND THE SCHOOL...

What was your worst
finals experience?

Sitting behind a certain someone] during first year civil procedure exam. He flicked sweat on me before and after the exam. The craziest thing is - I was sitting three rows back!

What is the most important thing that you have learned since first year?

That the best sneaker stores are further down Fulton Street toward Flatbush.

What is the most important thing that you have learned since first year?

Just as "possession is nine-tenths of the law," persistence - notwithstanding
confusion, fear,
intimidation or mental fatigue - is nine-tenths of law school. The other tenth can be found at O'Keefes.

What was your worst
experience with the Socratic method?

Getting called on in property and making an analogy to the overpopulation of possums in New Zealand.
Professor Murumba never called on me again.

What about your first year self
makes you laugh at yourself?

Can anybody say "blue book
exam?"

What bothers you
most about law
students?

They can't give a straight answer.
Everything is..."well,
you can argue..."
"well, theoretically...."
"well, it depends on how you define..." or
"I believe so..." or
"that is my understanding...."

What is the most important thing that you have learned since first year?

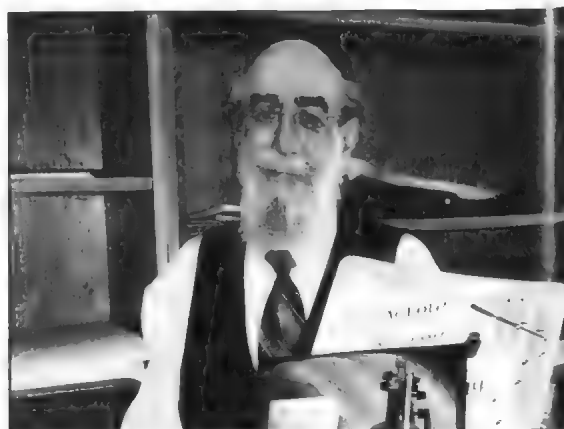

I shouldn't have gone to law school - just kidding :)

What's your favorite (and least favorite) thing about law school?

Favorite - The knowing nod you get from attorneys on the street when they see you carrying law school textbooks.

Least favorite - The long travel home at 10:00 PM.

What was your worst experience with the Socratic method?

Professor Cohen - "Mr. Panzella, do you have any thoughts on what section of the UCC may provide some guidance as to this problem"

Me - "Umm...actually, I'm unclear on this."

Professor Cohen - "Is that because you are genuinely confused, or because you are unprepared for class?"

Me - "well, I'm going to have to go with a little of both."

Professor Cohen - "well, if you purport it is both, I can tell you, it is in fact the latter, not the former."

What would you do if you didn't go to law school?

I would be break-dancing on Joralemon Street.

What about your first year self makes you laugh at yourself?

That i thought i'd be getting straight A's.

What would you do if you didn't go to law school?

I would focus on my putting.

What will you do
after the bar?

Walk around with my diploma
hanging around my neck, and speak to everyone about everything in incomprehensible legalese. I will also try to make a few bucks.

What will you do
after the bar?

Sleep, have a cocktail, lay on the beach

What about your first year self
makes you laugh at yourself?

The fact that I wore knee-high leather boots and a dog collar.

What was your most frustrating/worst finals experience?

Finally using examsoft in my last year, and wanting to shoot myself for spending three prior years handwriting exams, and running out of time.

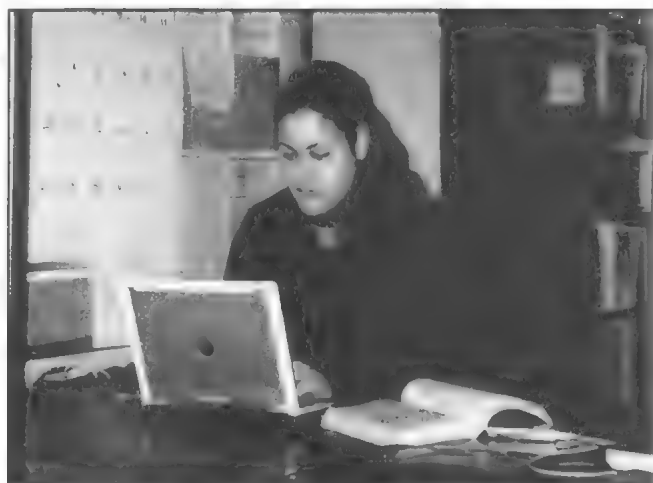

What would you do if you didn't go to law school?

Work in sports radio industry.

What about your first year self makes you laugh at yourself?

The idea that memorizing every case, treatise and statute had anything to do with passing a final.

Whats your favorite (and least favorite) thing
